Saul Mandel (20th Century), “Clown”, Acrylic on Masonite Board. Saul Mandel was an illustrator, animator and graphic designer. He was most known for designing the Jolly Green Giant and The 1986 Puppy Love postage stamp. Mandel's work in advertising covered many types of products, such as: automobiles, airlines, milk, candy and alcohol. Image from the Society of Illustrators Permanent Collection.